OFFICE NOTE

Subs

Mr. Hammack has asked me to place the following proposal of M.V.Y. before the Board for order:-

At present a silver Gandabharunda medal is awarded for meritorious services rendered to the Scout Movement. This medal is not permitted to be worn at Durbar etc., nor do people attach much importance to it owing to the inconspicuous manner of its award. M.V.Y. therefore, suggests that a gold Gandabharunda medal may be instituted by Govt. and presented by H.H. the Maharaja along with the other awards during the Birthday & Durbar Durbar. It may be a rare award made only for very conspicuous and well-merited services, and a beginning may be made this season by awarding it to Mr. Shankar-narani Rao.

8. NO papers are available in the Confidential Branch in regard to the grant of Silver Gandabherunda for meritorious services rendered to the Scout movement. The rules put up (Rule 322) indicate that ~~this~~ this honour is conferred by the Chief Scout. I have sent a requisition to Bangalore to see if any papers on the subject could be traced in the Education or ~~any~~ other Branch of the Secretariat and forward them here.

9. It is, however, submitted that a Public Service Medal (gold) of the I class of the Gandabherunda order has been awarded by His Highness the Maharaja during Dasara Durbar for distinguished services rendered in the Cause of the Scout movement (e.g. Major Y. V. Krishna murti in 1935).

10. In cases where a higher honour is intended, it is for consideration whether the Gandabherunda Titles (jewels) of the present Order (A, B, C, D) will be appropriate for the meritorious services in the Boy Scout movement ^{decided to institute}

If it is ~~decided to institute a separate~~ another Order of Gold Gandabherunda Medal (apart from the existing P. S. Medals - gold) specially ~~instituted~~ for the Scout movement, the design of

2) There is need for the inclusion of a gold Ganda-bherunda medal in the scheme of awards for valuable services to the Scout Movement. Such a medal would have specific reference to the Scout Movement, as distinguished from a Public Service Gold Medal or Gandabherunda titles, and would be in recognition of most outstanding and conspicuous services to the Movement. Higher importance could be given to it by its being awarded (as proposed by His Highness the Yuvaraja) by His Highness the Maharaja along with other awards during the Birthday or Dasara - Durbars and its recipient being entitled to wear it at Durbars. After the institution of this medal, there would be no need for resort to Public Service Medals of the I class which are awarded, I believe, in recognition of public services of a less specific nature or to Gandabherunda titles which are conferred for larger State reasons.

3) His Highness the Yuvaraja's proposal involves only the amendment to Rule 322 by the insertion of the following para as 1 under Section (a) of the rule and re-numbering the present paragraphs under that section serially as (2) to (6).

4) The first para will be as follows:-

24) Since according to rule 348 (i), made by the State Scout Council at its 19th Annual Meeting held on 16th

There is at present a system of presentation of badges and decorations for meritorious services rendered in connection with the Scout movement, which is governed by a set of regulations framed by the Scout organisation. These regulations are not framed by Government, and amendments thereto can only be made by the State Scout Council. The Director of Public Instruction proposes that award of gold medals by His Highness the Maharaja (as Patron) for these services may also be introduced and this may be done by amending the regulations referred to above, getting the approval of the State Scout Council thereto. The awards of honours by His Highness the Maharaja at the Palace Durbars is a Royal prerogative which has to be entirely at His Highness' unfettered discretion and pleasure, and I do not think it would be appropriate for such awards to be regulated in any way by rules which have to be passed by an outside organisation or public body. No formal rules have been laid down in regard to the award of Public Service Medals and recommendations for these medals are formulated (on the basis of certain general principles informally approved by His Highness) and submitted for His Highness' formal sanction on each occasion. It is for consideration whether it is necessary to institute a separate system of medals specially for Boy Scouts, or whether services in this cause may also be considered to be one form of "public service" and the existing order of Public Service Medals utilised to recognise meritorious services in connection with the Scout Movement also as is being done even now. If, however, another system of award of Medals for Scout Services be decided upon, I beg to suggest that no formal rules need be issued in this behalf nor need the State Scout Council take action to amend the rules. The Medal may perhaps be of the same weight and size as that of the Public Service Medal, I Class, with the ^{inscription} ~~inspection~~ of the Gandabherunda on one side. Details in regard to the words to be inscribed etc., may be fixed up after an understanding is arrived at about the general lines of the scheme. The medals may be presented during the Dasara Durbars, along with the Public Service Medals, with a separate form of Announcement. The Director of Public Instruction (who is Chairman of the Executive Committee) may be asked to send up, with the approval of the Chief Scout, recommendations every year, so as to reach Govt. one month before Vijaya

Final Note by the First Member of Council

Subject.—

Institution of gold Gandabherunda Medal for meritorious services to Scout movement.

36 At present a silver Gandabherunda is granted by His Highness the Yuvaraja, the Chief Scout, for significant and valuable service to the Boy Scout movement. It is worn as an order round the neck on a green, red and yellow ribbon. (Rule 322 of the rules relating to Boys Scout movement). It is not worn at Durbars and the manner of award is inconspicuous. His Highness the Yuvaraja therefore suggests that a gold Gandabherunda Medal may be instituted by Government and presented by His Highness the Maharaja along with other awards during the Birthday or Dasara Durbars and that it may be a rare award made only for very conspicuous and well merited services.

37) The Director of Public Instruction who was consulted in the matter states that there is need for the institution of such a gold Gandabherunda Medal for services to the Scout Movement. I am of opinion that a system of awards of medals for Scout services may be instituted. The medal may be of the same weight and size as the Public Service Medal (First Class) with the Gandabherunda on one side and suitable inscription on the other. The medal may be presented during the Dasara Durbars along with the Public Service Medals with a separate form of announcement. The Director of Public Instruction, who is the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Boy Scout movement, may be asked to send up, with the approval of His Highness the Chief Scout, recommendations every year so as to reach Government one month before Vijayadasami, giving full particulars relating to the persons to whom the medals may be awarded together with a brief statement of their services.

With reference to your letter No. 2351/C.B. 127-38-1 dated 19th January 1939 regarding the institution of a system of award of medals for recognition of services rendered to Scout Movement in the State, I have the honour to state that the Chief Commissioner of Scouts who was consulted in the matter states that the Boy Scouts of Mysore are grateful to His Highness the Maharaja for having so graciously included services to the Scout Movement as also deserving of his gracious recognition during the Dasara Durbars. He suggests that the fact that the medal is awarded for services rendered to the Scout Movement should be indicated by the inscription on the medal itself by the insertion of the words "For Scout Services" below the name to be engraved on the reverse side of the Public Service Medal as "Presented by His Highness the Maharaja to for 'Scout Services'".

Agreeing with this suggestion of the Chief Commissioner of Scouts in Mysore, I request that the Government may be pleased to modify suitably the form of announcement.

The medals will be presented during the Dasara Durbars along with the Public Service medals with a separate form of announcement, the existing form issued in connection with the award of Public Service medals being suitably amplified. A draft of the proposed form of announcement is herewith enclosed.

It is also considered appropriate that the medals should be accompanied with the usual khillats of value not exceeding Rs.50/- The Chief Commissioner of Scouts has been requested to send up, with the approval of His Highness the Chief Scout, recommendations every year two months before Vijayadasami, giving full particulars regarding the persons to whom the medals might be awarded together with a brief statement of their services to the Scout movement.
